How do I locate my baptismal or sacramental records?

Your church of baptism is the official place for recording sacraments, even if they are celebrated in another parish. Your first step in obtaining a baptismal certificate is to contact your church of baptism. If you were baptized in a parish in the Diocese of Madison please consult the list of parishes in the Diocese of Madison by clicking on <http://www.madisondiocese.org/Parishes/ParishLocations.aspx> for the contact information.

If the parish is closed or merged please consult the Closed and Merged Parishes list. In the event the records are located at the Archives Office request that information by contacting the Archives Office by phone or email. For additional questions contact the Archives Office.

How do I obtain genealogical research?

You will need to contact the Archives Office in order to seek information that pertains to genealogical research.
