Our Call to Holiness.

How to be Authentically Human

The prime and fundamental vocation that the Father assigns to each of them in Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit: the vocation to holiness, that is, the perfection of charity. Holiness is the greatest testimony of the dignity conferred on a disciple of Christ. –John Paul II

Me? Holy?

If you're baptized then you're called to holiness. Everyone is called to holiness-there are no exceptions. The call to holiness is universal. Your vocation is how you live holiness out.

As a teenager, you may or may not know the vocation God is calling you to. Regardless if you are called to be single, married, consecrated or priest, your pursuit to happiness is holiness. It is what God has created you for. Holiness is love and it is how we love one another. Discover God's plan for your vocation in the light of holiness at the first Revolution of Love event:

Sunday, November 14, 2010 - 7:00-8:30 pm

Location: Holy Mother of Consolation Parish-Oregon

651 N Main St

About our Presenter: Fr. Eric Sternberg

Fr. Eric Sternberg grew up near Madison in Prairie du Sac, WI. In 2000 he graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point with a degree in Biology and shortly after entered the seminary. He received his Baccalaureate in Sacred Theology in 2005 and on May 27th of 2005 he was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Madison. He has served as the parochial vicar of St. John the Baptist Parish in Waunakee and as the pastor of St. Bridget Parish in Ridgeway and Immaculate Conception Parish in Barneveld. On Oct. 1, 2008 he became the co-pastor of St. Paul University Catholic Center. He is also an advocate for the Tribunal of the Diocese of Madison.

A Revolution of Love is a three-part series. Each session explores an aspect of love from the perspective of the Church. Parents are encourage to attend to listen to the speakers and engage with the youth.
