

A rEVOLution (of Love)

Part Two of a three-part series dedicated to sharing Pope John Paul II's compelling vision of love and life through the lens of Theology of the Body to the teens of our Diocese

"Real love is demanding, I would fail in my mission if I did not tell you so. Love demands a personal commitment to the will of God."
Pope John Paul II

Cost: FREE—A free will offering will be collected at all events.

Who: All high school students & parents are encouraged to attend all the sessions offered.

Registration:
www.madisondiocese.org/youth

Questions:
Contact Andy Galvin at 608-821-4517 or Sarabeth Bowe at 608-838-9797

Refreshments will be served at all events.

Living Out The Theology of the Body

Sunday, April 11 7:00-8:30 p.m.
St. Ann Parish—Stoughton, WI

Panel to include:

Monica & Ryan Freng

Ryan and Monica were married in Madison in 2008. They met in 2006 at St. Paul's Catholic Center here in Madison, where Ryan was actively involved as a student leader and Monica was serving an internship as a Dorm Missionary. Ryan graduated with a degree in Communication Arts in 2006 from UW-Madison, and has a budding film company Backflip Films "on the side" and works in web technology for the university's library system. Monica works as Director of Parish Life & Mission at the Cathedral Parish in Madison, and has a degree in Theology from Ave Maria College. They have one daughter, Clare, who just turned one year old - and are expecting their second baby in July.

Christopher Gernetzke

Christopher Gernetzke is a seminarian for the Diocese of Madison, WI. He currently is in formation at Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary in Winona, MN. In his junior year of college studies, he is pursuing a degree in philosophy. He has had an interesting path to the vocation of the priesthood, dating in high school and into college, before entering the seminary.

Marissa Mastrangeli & Brad Lipinski

Marissa Mastrangeli and Brad Lipinski met in high school and have been dating for over three years. Throughout their relationship they have practiced their faith by planning retreats, spending time in prayer, giving talks, and Marissa recently began teaching NFP. Marissa studies Spanish and Linguistics and Brad studies Philosophy and Computer Science, both at the University of WI. They will graduate in May 2010 and are planning a June 5, 2010 wedding.

This series is co-sponsored by the Catholic Diocese of Madison; Christ the King Parish, McFarland; St. John the Baptist Parish, Waunakee; St. Patrick's Parish, Lodi; and St. John the Baptist, Jefferson.